Record of drivers at the official tests of the Italian F.4 Championship Powered by Abarth

Total number of participants to the official tests in Monza on the 19th of May has grown up to 30.

Rome, 15/05/2015 – Accessions to the official tests in Monza on the 19th of May do not stop and have reached the number of 30, in preparation of the second round of the 2015 Italian F.4 Championship Powered by Abarth.

Since last season, year of international debut of the F.4 Championship, started first in Italy, drivers' participation has grown constantly, reaching the record of this testing event in Monza. The high quality, safety and performance standards of the 100% Italian single-seater, the careful organization and the most important circuits present in Europe, have attracted many teams and drivers from abroad. At the tests 24 drivers will be from foreign countries and 6 from Italy.

Two additional drivers have just recently been added to the total list, both of Swiss Jenzer Motorsport, the German Hoti Arlind and the Swiss Moritz Mueller-Crepon, respectively born in 1998 and 1997.
