ITALIAN F.4 CHAMPIONSHIP POWERED BY ABARTH

Fourth round of the F.4 Championship on the Tuscan circuit

Engines are warming up for the race weekend in Mugello

The Italian F.4 Championship Powered by Abarth will be racing this coming weekend on the temple of speed, the Autodromo del Mugello, the 2015 mid-season appointment.

Once more participation is extremely good, with 26 drivers registered to the race. This year the Italian F.4 Championship Powered by Abarth is more than ever an international championship, thanks to drivers coming from all over the World, while Italian are the organization set up by ACI Sport and WSK Promotion, and the important tutorial activity of the ACI Sport Federal School. Moreover, all the circuits involved are the best venues in Italy, selected carefully by the organization to offer maximum level of safety, tracks and services.

General Championship classification sees in first position Ralf Aron (150 points), of Prema Powerteam, and his team-mate Guan Yu Zhou (135 points). Third is the Russian Robert Shwartzman (Muecke Motorsport) with 78 points, followed by the German David Beckmann (Muecke Motorsport) with 68 points, the Israeli Bar Baruch (Israel F.4) tied with the Brazilian Joao Vieira (Antonelli Motorsport) (60 points). In the newly born Woman Trophy Julia Pankiewicz leads, with just one point, on her twin sister Wiktorja, both of RB Racing.

Racing weekend program sees two qualifying sessions on Friday at 17.40 and, to follow, three races, one on Saturday with start at 14.20 and two on Sunday starting at 9.00 and at 17.05.
