ITALIAN F.4 CHAMPIONSHIP POWERED BY ABARTH

Beckmann unbeatable in race 1

David Beckmann has no rivals and maintains first position for the entire race, although the safety car enters the track.

Adria 06.09.2015 – David Beckmann (Muecke Motorsport) starts from pole position and with a humming rithm gains distance from the followers. Behind, Ralf Aron (Prema Power Team) tries to follow, but loses a couple of tenths per lap. Behind the Aestonian driver his teammate, Guan Yu Zhou, is back to the performance he had in Monza (seems his engine had problems, solved, both in Imola and Mugello).

After the first few curves, two accidents involve Joao Vieira (Antonelli Motorsport) with Giuliano Raucci (Prema Power Team), and Diego Bertonelli (RB Racing) with Bar Baruch (Israel F4). Safety Car enters the track. At the restart, Beckmann maintains first position, while Yu Zhou catches up on Aron, and finally takes second position with a wonderful overtake.

There is a gap between the first five, with Robert Schwartzman (Muecke Motorsport) fourth and Nico Rindlisbacher (Jenzer Motorsport) fifth, and the rest of the group. A great battle takes place from sixth to ninth position, between Kevin Kanayet (Malta Formula Racing), Marino Sato (Vincenzo Sospiri Racing), Lucas Mauron (Jenzer Motorsport) and Mauricio Baiz (Vincenzo Sospiri Racing).

Beckmann wins his first race of 28' + 1 lap, and also sets best lap time, in front of Guan Yu Zhou. Third is Ralf Aron. In the Woman Trophy Julia Pankiewicz (RB Racing) is in front of Wiktorja.
