ITALIAN F.4 CHAMPIONSHIP POWERED BY ABARTH

Race 2 podium with Schwartzman, Sato and Baiz

Muecke Motorsport and, then, Vincenzo Sospiri Racing

Adria 06.09.2015 – New faces on the podium of race 2, also thanks to the inverted first ten positions of race 1 for the starting grid.

From pole position, Kevin Kanayet (Malta Formula Racing) starts well and takes the lead. He defends first position for some laps, but has to surrender to the followers, in particular to Mauricio Baiz (Vincenzo Sospiri Racing). After overtaking Kanayet, the Venezuelan driver manages to create some distance from the rest of the group, taking advantage of the battle behind. Robert Shwartzman (Muecke Motorsport), starting seventh from the grid, battles in each curve, bending also his front flap, and finally manages to overtake Baiz and conquer first position.

The Russian driver wins, followed by Marino Sato (Vincenzo Sospiri Racing), who in the meanwhile has overtaken Baiz. Once more spectacular and extremely fast on this track is the winner of race 1, David Beckmann, who comes up from tenth position and at the end of the race overtakes Aron with a “Ricciardo style” move, conquering fourth place.

In the final classification two drivers are penalized with a drive through (25 seconds): Kikko Galbiati (Antonelli Motorsport) dew to a contact with the car of Wiktorina Pankiewicz (RB Racing), and, Guan Yu Zhou (Prema Power Team), dew to an overtake during safety car. Riccardo Ponzio (Teramo Racing Team) is excluded from the event dew to hitting Julia Pankiewicz’ car (RB Racing) during safety car.
