ITALIAN F.4 CHAMPIONSHIP POWERED BY ABARTH

Gara 2: Schwartzman wins after stewards decisions

On dry track battle has been strong

Misano 03/10/2015 – With dry track and the first ten positions of classification of race 1 inverted for the starting grid of race 2, show and battles have not been missed.

At the start, Joao Vieira (Antonelli Motorsport) keeps first position from pole, followed by Mauricio Baiz (Vincenzo Sospiri Racing). The two drivers battle for a few laps for the lead, and finally also Guan Yu Zhou (Prema Power Team) gets in the fight. At the end, it is Vieira to manage to take first position and create a gap from the followers, while, starting from the back, Robert Schwartzman (Muecke Motorsport) catches up to second position, and third is once again Diego Bertonelli (RB Racing).

Unfortunately, final results are modified because of penalties given to five drivers not respecting the limit of tyre warming up in the warm up lap. Among these drivers, there is also Vieira, who has anyway disputed an incredible race and must be complimented for that.

Final classification sees first Schwartzman, second Bertonelli and third Nico Rindlisbacher (Jenzer Motorsport).

Tomorrow race 3 will start at 12:05.
