

NEWS ITALIAN F4 CHAMPIONSHIP

Press release no.4 / 2016

There are 40 single-seaters and 22 teams registered so far in the Italian F.4 Championship powered by Abarth 2016

New entries are expected shortly. The 2016 Championship, which kicks-off in Misano on the second weekend in April, promises to be a real battle

Rome 02/02/2016 –The Italian F.4 Championship powered by Abarth 2016 has reached 40 registered single-seaters. With the first weekend of racing - set for 8, 9 and 10 April at the Misano Marco Simoncelli World Circuit - the number of teams that have formally confirmed their participation is in fact increasing.

- However, this is not the final number: there are still cars finalising the operational details required before the season can be considered to have kicked-off. This season should see the participation of about 40/45 cars overall. As for the names of the drivers, the teams are instead completing negotiations and they will be announced shortly.
- Luca De Donno, of WSK Promotion S.r.l., the sponsor of the Italian F.4 Championship powered by Abarth, stated: "We are very pleased with this result, which fully reflects the initially response forecasted with ACI Sport: the first year for launching the championship, a second year of growth and a third year for the completion of the starting grid".
- The following are the teams currently registered, in alphabetical order:

- Antonelli Motorsport	(ITA)
- Aragon Racing	(DEU)
