

NEWS ITALIAN F4 CHAMPIONSHIP

Press release no. 9/2016

Organisers recently announced the names of the drivers of the Italian F.4 Championship powered by Abarth for the weekend at Misano. 41 pilots from 21 different countries.

20 teams were entered in the first race weekend on April 8-9-10 at the Misano World Circuit Marco Simoncelli.

Rome, 31.03.2016 – Less than two weeks are left to the start of the 2016 season of the Italian F.4 Championship powered by Abarth and the starting grid of the first race is now complete. The race will attract teams and drivers from all over the world: Italy, Austria, Germany, Argentina, Venezuela, Switzerland, United States, Guatemala, Mexico, Slovenia, Portugal, Canada, Russia, Estonia, Brazil, Romania, France, India, China, the Netherlands, Belgium, Liechtenstein, Japan and Poland.

- Given the large number of participants already in the first weekend, organisers have decided to adopt the new race format, with the competitors distributed (by lot) in batteries for the qualifying sessions. At the end of the sessions, the pilots are divided into three groups based on their ranking in the overall standings. Each of these groups will dispute two qualifying races (which award points valid for the Championship rankings), at the end of which the ranking is determined by the sum of the points of each pilot. The top 36 have the right to participate in another race, which awards points valid for all rankings of the Italian F.4 Championship powered by Abarth. All the details on the new race format can be found at this link.

- Below are the names of the drivers sorted by race number.
