

NEWS ITALIAN F4 CHAMPIONSHIP

Press Release 32 / 2016

The third race at Imola confirms Marcos Siebert as the Championship leader. Kush Maini leads the Rookie Trophy and Jenzer Motorsport is ahead in the Team Classification.

The third round of the Italian F4 Championship powered by Abarth was held at the Autodromo di Enzo e Dino Ferrari, Imola in trying weather conditions. Subsequently the official results for Races 1 and 3 have been revised (due to half points being awarded because the race distance completed was less than 75%).

ROME 2nd June, 2016 – The rain fell heavily on the Imola circuit throughout the second round of the Italian F4 Championship powered by Abarth. In particular, the results of Races 1 and 3 were found not to be in accordance with the standing event regulations. Therefore, under the direction of the Race Control and the administrative body, the decision has been made to have the classification revised. The complete updated results have been uploaded to the site acisportitalia.it/F4.

- Regarding the championship, the overall classification sees the Argentine Marcos Siebert of the Jenzer Motorsport team (who won the opening race at Imola) ahead on 148 points. He is followed by the German Mick Schumacher of Prema Power Team (winner of Race 2 at Imola) on 108 points. Then comes the Mexican driver Raul Guzman of DR Formula on 101 points, the Venezuelan Mauricio Baiz of Kfzteile24 Mucke Motorsport on 85 points, the Dutchman Job Van Uitert of Jenzer Motorsport on 75.5 points, Brazilian Joao Viera of Antonelli Motorsport on 58, the Chinese driver Ye Yifei of Kfzteile24 Mucke Motorsport on 55, Italian Simone Cunati from Vincenzo Sospiri Racing on 53, the Russian from RB Racing who was second in Race 3 at Imola Yan Shlom on 40.5, the American Juan Manuel Correa of Prema Power Team on 35.5 who won the thrid race at Imola.
- The Italian F4 Championship powered by Abarth confirms itself as being a very international championship with the first 10 drivers representing 9 different nations..
