

NEWS ITALIAN F4 CHAMPIONSHIP

Press Release Number 45 / 2016

Mick Schumacher wins Race 2 of the Italian F4 Championship powered by Abarth at Vallelunga

On a dry track in stable weather for Race 2, Juri Vips wins the Rookie Trophy and Fabienne Wohlwend wins the Women's Trophy

Vallelunga (Rome) 11/9/2016 – The fight for the lead of Race 2 was resolved at the start, when Mick Schumacher passed his Prema Power team mate, the Estonian Juri Vips (2nd at the end), who had a slower start due to too much wheelspin. From this moment, the German would not relinquish the lead all the way to the chequered flag. This, even with the entry of the Safety Car to the circuit on the third lap.

- ∞ On the third step of the podium was Giuliano Raucci (Diegi Motorsport), meanwhile in fourth was Diego Bertonelli (Bhaitech), followed by Marcos Siebert (Jenzer Motorsport), Raul Guzman and Artem Petrov of DR Formula, Kush Maini (BVM Racing), Sebastian Fernandez (RB Racing) with Juan Manuel Correa rounding out the top ten..
- ∞ In the Rookie Trophy first was Juri Vips ahead of Artem Petrov, Kush Maini, Sebastian Fernandez and Juan Manuel Correa. Fabienne Wohlwend won the Women's Trophy and was 24th overall.
- ∞ Special mention should also be given to Raul Guzman and Kush Maini who fought a spectacular battle for sixth position, with Guzman winning the fight while Maini lost time after the lightest of touches with Guzman losing a position to Artem Petrov..
- ∞ The fifth round concludes this afternoon with Race 3 (over a duration of 18 minutes + 1 lap) at 14:40. The complete results of Race 2 are available on acisportitalia.it/F4

Ufficio Stampa F.4 Italian Championship powered by Abarth
Mail to: pressf4@acisportitalia.it