Vallelunga (Rome) 25/06/2017 – Again, Race 3 was held in hot conditions meaning that tyre use became more than ever, a critical aspect for all drivers. The winner was the Brazilian Felipe Drugovich of Van Amersfort Racing, impressive given it was his first time on the Vallelunga circuit. Right behind him was the Russian Artem Petrov (DR Formula), his third podium from the three races, despite the fact that he was given a 5 second penalty for contact with his team mate, the Italian Aldo Festante. A great drive from Festante who resisted the pressure applied to him by the New Zealander Marcus Armstrong (Prema Power Team), who finished fourth.

- ∞ In fifth place was the Italian Lorenzo Colombo (Bhaitech), who during the final tried to attack for fourth place but thought better of it, keeping one eye on the championship. - ∞ In the Rookie Trophy, a third victory for Lorandi, followed by the Brit Olli Caldwell (BWT Muecke Motorsport) and Brazil's Enzo Fittipaldi (Prema Power Team).
