ITALIAN F4 CHAMPIONSHIP STARTS

At Adria International Circuit the first appointment of the Italian F4 Championship Powered by Abarth 2018 with 30 drivers from 17 countries and 3 continents

09/04/2018 – On the weekend of the 22nd of April the 4° Italian F4 Championship Powered by Abarth starts at the Adria International Circuit, in a season that promises to be successful and rich of competition. Up to 30 drivers will be at the start of the race on the Italian circuit. Moreover, also this year it is evident how the Italian F4 is a great attraction for teams and drivers from all over the world: among the 30 talents at the start of the Adria race, 20 are not Italian and come from 17 countries from 3 continents.

Also, around 20 out of the 30 drivers at Adria will be participating to the Italian F4 for the first time, while 16 of them have not participated to more than 3 racing weekends, and so will be competing in the Rookie Trophy.

Particularly resonant the name of one of the new coming drivers, Jack Doohan, son of the 5 times World Champion of MotoGP, who will also compete in the Rookie Trophy.

The first day on track, Friday 20, will be dedicated to collective tests, while Saturday and Sunday official qualifying and the 3 races will respectively take place.
